Since 1962, the National Aviation Hall of Fame has inducted over 250 of the nation's premier air and space pioneers into the organization. Enshrinees in the National Aviation Hall of Fame are the who's who in the world of aviation and include some of the most prestigious names in flight including Charles Lindbergh, Orville and Wilbur Wright, Neil Armstrong, Bessie Coleman, Charles McGee and Sally Ride.

Join us for the "Oscar Night of Aviation" as we come together to honor the newest group of aviation giants as they're inducted into the National Aviation Hall of Fame. Those invited to attend include senior military service members, corporate and association executives, political leaders and Administration officials.
